FOREWORD

In our four happy years of high school, we have made many friends. May these friendships continue through the years, and may this, our class Annual, serve as a vivid reminder in the future of our four years of work and play together in B. H. S.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

FRANK C. BELDOWSKI

"Come on, you guys"

Here he is, folks! "Franklin," the most wide-awake, spirited, and peppy fellow in the class. Frank is a member of the Hi-Y and it was through his efforts that Bundle Day was a success. The Hi-Y's cooperation in Bundle Day was the greatest service that club has ever rendered Bloomfield. He played the part of Judge Logan in the Senior Play. Among other things Frank was president of the class for two years.

Chemistry is Frank's main interest, and he is president of the Chem Club. After graduation he hopes to continue this study in some chemical laboratory.

EDITH L. BOOTH

"Oh heck!"

"Somebody's Stenog," that's what Edith is going to be; and we're willing to wager she'll make a good one.

"Boots" has been with our class the whole four years and is one of our best workers. Can she sell candy? Oh my! It's not safe to be around her at candy sales if you happen to be on a diet.

Edith belongs to the Sphinx Club and expects to go to business school after graduation.

S. MORRIS COX, JR.

"Lord knows!"

Morris is a quiet, dignified sort of chap until he gets excited! You should hear him rattle it off in P. D. Morris favors capital punishment—or does he? We don't know.

He is a member of the Sphinx Club and Chem Club, and he was a stage-hand in the Senior Play. He is certainly a masterful furniture handler—everything up to 49½ pounds.

He expects to enter a law office upon graduating and then study at law school.

FRED D. CRANSE, JR.

Fred is a natural born executive and has been the leader in everything he has undertaken in the school. He is the editor-in-chief of this Annual and put in many long hours over his work.

Freddy served as president of the Student Council for a whole year and led nearly every assembly during his term of office. He has also been president of the Sphinx Society and won the Sphinx Research Medal last year.

In the Senior Play, Fred was Assistant Business Manager, and also sold more tickets than any other member of the class. Among his other activities, Fred is a member of the Hi-Y and is editor of the "Hi-Y'an." On the staff of the "Student Prints" Fred is a feature editor. He also served on the Student Council Handbook Committee, and won eight places in the class Who's Who.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

KATHERINE A. CROWE ✓

"Good morning, Your Royal Highness"

"Kay" is one of the girls of the senior class who are interested in "Retail Selling," and she will have completed the year's course at the Vocational School. She expects to continue with that sort of work after graduation.

"Kay" absolutely detests shorthand and hopes she'll never see it again.

Sometime we hope to see "Kay" in one of the big department stores as a department chief or assistant buyer.

LOUIS H. GALLUBA ✓

"What?"

Louis has been with us only a year. He came to us from Belleville and it didn't take him long to gain popularity here in Bloomfield.

Louis is quite an athlete. He played guard on the Belleville football team for three years and captained the team during his last season. Unfortunately, a dislocated arm made it impossible for him to show his wares for Bloomfield. As an able seaman he has seen much of the world.

His favorite study, we hear, is English. After graduation, Louis will enter the business world in some capacity, yet unknown.

EDWARD GOLAS ✓

"You see it's this way."

Eddie is our example of a good-natured, easy-going, young fellow. What makes English class so interesting? Eddie! Who's a shiek in 104B? Eddie! Who has a weakness for blondes? Eddie! And who has blond curly hair and a beautiful complexion? Eddie! Eddie has kept his future plans a secret, but who knows, he might be a famous biologist! Biology, so we are told, is one of his best subjects. We are quite sure of Eddie's future success because of his winning personality.

HUGH HEALY

"You're shoutin' right"

Hoot is president of our class and vice-president of the Chemistry Club. He is also the school's chief student-electrician and has been connected in an electrical capacity with every Senior Play since he entered High School. Hoot was the leading man in "Pals First." He played the part of Danny Rowland, a supposedly escaped convict.

We think Hoot should be a doctor, but his greatest ambition is to be a civil, electrical, and hydraulic engineer.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

JAMES J. KANE

"How's your woman?"

Here is a fellow you can't help liking. With his pleasing personality he has little trouble making friends with everyone.

Jimmy has had to work quite hard during his Senior year, but you'd never guess it by looking at him. We know that someone has been inspiring him—perhaps that's the reason he doesn't show this hard work.

As property man for our Senior Play, Jimmy did a very good job.

We wish Jimmy all the success possible in whatever he undertakes.

LOUISE KUSLER

"Freddie, open the locker."

Louise has certainly a large place in the affections of the class. Her ready wit and never-failing good humor have won her the votes for the most popular girl. She was also voted the girl with the best personality and the nicest smile.

In the Senior Play, Louise's part was that of the colored mammy; everyone agrees that she played her part to perfection.

Until her senior year, Louise was an active member of many clubs, but she gave them up to devote more time to class activities. However, she is still a member of the Senior Gym Team.

We expect Louise to get along in the business world as well as she gets along with us—and Freddie!

J. MALCOLM LITTLE

"If I ever pass this algebra—"

Someone once got the bright idea to call Malcolm, "Snapper." We can't say why. Malcolm is always slow and deliberate about everything he does and especially about what he says.

Malc is an accomplished musician. He plays several instruments, among them the saxophone and the clarinet. In his spare time he sings with the Boys' Glee Club. He belongs to both the Orchestra and the Band and is an exceptionally valuable member because of his versatility.

Malc appeared in the Senior Play immediately preceding "Pals First." He appeared there lugging his sax as one of the Four Melody Boys.

HELEN MARRIOTT

"I'm so tired."

Helen is a tall slender blonde, but full of ambition and pep. She also enjoys plenty of hard work. She has taken the "Retail Selling" course at the Vocational School, besides four major subjects and outside activities. However, Helen expects to be a nurse. For this reason she is going to train in the Montclair Mountainside Hospital. We are sure the patients will improve under Helen's care.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

MARY MATCHES ✓

"I don't think so."

Miss Matches is our little south'n Miss. She hails from Virginia. Little Mary is quite a demure and quiet person but she certainly puts her arguments across in P. D. class, especially about those country schools.

During the short time she has been with us, we know her to be very friendly and congenial. Does that Virginia air account for that nice complexion? Quote:

"I'm not going to do nothing after I graduate."
Unquote.

EDWARD McRAE

"Excuse Me!"

Eddie is our little "Scotty" and little he is! Teachers feel brutal when they reprimand him.

Although Eddie has been in this country a short time, there is no one that can take him for the well-known "ride."

Eddie is credited with good nature and ready wit. Can you picture him in long pants or with his hair mussed? He has a great advantage over us when it comes to going down the stairs.

Because of his winning personality, we are sure of Eddie's success.

FRANK J. MESSINGER ✓

"Aw, leave me alone"

Meet one of those big, silent men you often hear about. Coming from the wide-open spaces of Cedar Grove, Frank is well accustomed to solitude and enjoys it, he says. In his own words, "Noise gripes me."

Frank is an awful big fellow with big baby blue eyes. Around school you can always see him dragging his Carnera-like physique around after his pal and fellow-mastodon, Dick McNeely. You know, they say, "Birds of a feather flock together."

ALBERT M. NAGY

"Well, ——"

If Al stars in business in after life the way he did in business in high school, he'll surely come out on top. He was business manager of the Senior Play, and is also business manager of the Annual.

Al is a member of the Hi-Y and this year was chairman of the program committee. He was also treasurer of the Sphinx Society and is an active member of both the Math and Glee Clubs. He is another of our classmates who believes in extra-curricular activities.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

SYLVIA NESLIN ✓

"That's all —— all right"

Here's the story in a nutshell (pardon us, we mean a paragraph or so) of one of our most popular girls.

Sylvia is graduating in three and one-half years, and though loaded down with books every night, her cheery smiles somehow manage to peep through.

She likes to dance, eat and talk for hours with Helen Solow, but we couldn't decide which one she likes best.

Sylvia is going to study business and after finishing school, she wants to get married. We don't understand the business part.

Lots of happiness, Sylvia.

EDWARD TUREN

"Geez fellers"

Eddie is our collegiate man, and does he like big knots in his ties? His only rivals are Mr. Rice and Ed Kukelski, the big-knot-in-tie men.

If you saw "Pals First" you'll agree that Eddie portrayed "The Squirrel" like a seasoned trouper.

He is an active member of the Chemistry and Sphinx Clubs, and a good class worker is Eddie.

If you want to have a lot of fun just go horse-back-riding with him!

His pals in History class often hear Eddie's "You must realize, Mr. Willits!"

Eddie intends to enter N. Y. U. and study dentistry after he leaves B. H. S.

GEORGE B. WELLE

"This darn trig has me worried"

George is a quiet, serious fellow—until you know him! A longer acquaintance proves him to be the best of friends, a real pal. Dependability is his middle name.

He is an active member of the Chem, Math, and Hi-Y clubs. He was advertising manager of the Senior Play. According to all reports, he is quite a math shark—as far as that goes, he seems to star in all his studies.

George is an usher at the Broadmoor Theatre. Ask him to sing his theme song sometime, "What Price Usher."

George will study engineering at N. Y. U. next fall.

WILLIAM O. ZERGIEBEL ✓

"Joke's over!"

Willie's a carefree fellow. The only time he worries is when he can't get laugh out of somebody. As regularly as a clock, Willie has a new joke every morning to tell to his ready audience in the home room.

Out of school hours, Willie's favorite everything is girls. He has a new Ford roadster that he drives around town at all hours of the day (and night). Boy, the way he wrestles with that buggy is just too bad!

Willie works (so he says) every afternoon. He is a little butcher boy. After graduation he intends to devote all his time to the meat business.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

MARION A. BABBAGE ✓

"Oh, my land!"

Who's that pretty blonde? Why, that's Marion. Montclair is the home of this attractive miss, but rather than give up dear old B. H. S. she travels down to Bloomfield and back every day.

"Bab's" favorite study is English. She likes to skate and draw, and belongs to the Sphinx Club. Oh, yes, she's quite a movie fan, too.

Marion expects to go to a school of Interior Decorating in New York next September. In the meantime she will take a post-graduate course either here or at Montclair High. Good luck, Marion!

ALONZO F. BARR

"No beer today"

Lonny is a new fellow to B. H. S., having joined our class last year from East Side High of Newark. Has he made an impression? Don't ask! Everybody is his pal.

He hasn't a worry in the world, it seems. At any time of the day you can find him hanging around in the halls.

It is rumored that he plays center for some church basketball team and that he's no slouch at it either. He shakes a mean leg on the dance floor and makes the weaker sex like it, so he says.

FRANCES C. BLANKLEY

"Depeche"

"A good all-round student" well describes this young lady. Frances is a member of the Girl Reserves, Chemistry and Sphinx Clubs, president of the French Club and our class treasurer for several terms.

Her performances on the Senior Gym Team, and the class basketball and baseball teams rate her the best girl athlete.

In addition to her other activities, she played the part of "Aunt Alicia" in our class play.

After taking a P. G. Fran expects to attend a business school in New York.

VIRGINIA MARIE BRADY

"You don't think I meant it, do you?"

Introducing Virginia, the future blues crooner. And can she croon? After graduation, Gin hopes to take voice lessons—we're sure she'll sing her way to success.

Besides being a member of the Senior Gym Team, Gin belongs to the French and Sphinx Clubs. She loves eating, dancing, and dark hair and blue eyes. What is that you're wearing on the chain around your neck, Gin? Don't worry, we won't tell.

If you want Virginia, you'll find her with Frances, for they're almost always together.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

OLIVE K. BROOKS

"Aw Nerts"

Another would-be secretary is Olive. She has been with us four years, and has proved to be an excellent student. Perhaps one reason for this is that she is so quiet. She never says much, but she knows her stuff!

Her favorite study is short-hand, and she likes to skate and dance and play tennis.

She will be the private secretary of a big business man yet. Just watch her!

WALTER J. CARSON

"Give us part of your lunch."

Walt is one of the best-natured and happy-go-lucky fellows in the class. And can he wise-crack!

Walt is very much interested in P. D. Class, and can often be heard arguing away in his corner with Farro and Marusi. Of late he seems to have developed a sudden interest in P. D. trips.

Why is it, Walt, that you can be seen making your way to Glen Ridge about four times a week? Let us in on the secret.

He has not decided what college he is going to attend, but is determined to become a college-trained forester.

Walt doesn't belong to any school clubs. He spends all his extra time either fishing or hunting.

DORIS MADELEINE COOK

"I can't stop"

Doris's talents are most varied; she draws, writes poetry, and plays a mean piano. She also writes the society notes of the Ampere Section for the Independent Press.

Do you want to go somewhere in a hurry? Ask Doris to drive you—she'll surely oblige. Doris has a special weakness for a blond at present, although she doesn't dislike them dark.

We warn you, don't ever start Doris laughing, for you'll wish you hadn't. She can't stop!

JOHN BALDWIN COURTER

"Did you get your Math?"

Jack has always been a quiet sort of person but willing to help you at any time.

You can usually find Jack working hard to get his homework finished; especially in the morning.

Jack is planning to go to "Pace Institute" and take a course in Accounting.

He is also a member of the Hi-Y and Chemistry Clubs. His main hobby is dancing.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

EMAGENE EUNICE EARLE ✓

"O. K."

Emagene's friendly personality has given her a prominent place in our class. In the offices of head cashier of the School Savings Bank and class secretary for four years she did very creditable work. She is a member of the Girls' Glee Club and also their accompanist.

Painting and dancing are Emagene's favorite pastimes. She often says she could dance forever.

After leaving school Emagene will probably make someone a good secretary and later a lucky man a good housekeeper.

VIRGINIA ENNIS

"Hush up!"

"Still waters run deep," and Virginia well illustrates this saying. She is one of the quietest members of our class, but when she does speak, she has something worth-while to say.

She says that she does not like any school subject, but does she know her English and P. D.! She likes to read and skate, and is fond of music.

Virginia is another future business girl, and we are sure she will make a good one.

RAYMOND J. FARRO

"Aw, nerts"

Ray is a good natured lad who comes from the wilds of Cedar Grove. Coming from a long line of Farros who were all football stars, Ray is a bit of a throw back. He plays with his brothers but was never quite good enough for the high school team.

Ray asserts that his favorite study is biology. He is an outdoor boy and plans to make his future work that sort. He will study forestry at the University of Montana.

GUSTAV F. HALLSTROM

Gus is one of the quiet fellows of the class, probably the quietest. You may have noticed the blank above where his favorite saying is supposed to go. That's just as it should be; Gus's favorite pastime is saying nothing, but when he does say something, it's worth saying.

Gus joined our class as a junior, coming from Verona High. He is now an active member of the Chem Club.

He likes sports of all kinds. He plays a mean game of basketball but he can't be convinced that he's any good. Gus is still undecided about his future plans, although he would like to go to college.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

LOUISE HAZARD

"Holy mackerel!"

Louise's work in the Girl Reserves and in the Chemistry Club together with her activities as president of the Latin Club and Editor-in-Chief of The Student Prints have proved her one of our most capable girls. She is much interested in Girl Scouting, literature, and music.

In the fall Hap plans to enter New Jersey College for Women to major in English. The class wishes her all success.

CATHERINE M. HEATH ✓

"Shoot it"

"Heathie" is interested in all sports and has played on the class basketball and baseball teams all through school and captained each, one term. She is on the Gym team and is an active member of the Girl Reserves. Her favorite sports are swimming and skating.

Music is one of her hobbies. She plays the piano and can she sing those low alto notes!

Catherine expects to enter the business world after graduation.

PEARL HENDEY

"Good Night"

Pearl is a little girl, quiet and bashful in the extreme. Any time in the day you can see her with Victoria Samplawska or Virginia Ennis. These three are inseparable friends. When Pearl isn't busy studying, she devotes her time to the piano. Swimming is Miss Hendey's favorite sport.

Pearl took a commercial course in school and after graduation she plans to get a job. As business men like women who mind their own business, Pearl should make a very efficient stenographer.

SHIRLEY ANN HUGHES

"Is he a blond?"

Shirley was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota, lived in Tennessee and Arkansas for three years, then brought her interesting personality to us in our sophomore year, from Battle Creek, Michigan.

She is extremely popular (especially with the boys), and has added much liveliness to our gang.

Her aim is to attend college in Virginia, but as yet a definite school has not been selected.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

ROBERT JOHNSTON ✓

"Gee, I don't know."

Good looking, pleasant, natural, happy-go-lucky—that's Bob, folks.

He filled his position as stage hand for our play remarkably well. Bob also made a good bouncer at play rehearsals.

Bob's favorite sport is basketball but he is adept in baseball and football.

He doesn't pull down any high marks, but he has lots of fun. Study periods appeal to him most.

Bob is going to enter the rubber industry. Luck, Bob!

KATHLEEN JONES ✓

"Hurry up, Frances"

"Captain, come here!" is another of Kathleen's favorite expressions. She loves dogs, but hates cats and being called "Ada."

Kathleen belongs to the Girl Reserves, and French and Chemistry Clubs. She was "one-half" Jean in the Senior Play, and we think she was p-r-e-t-t-y good! Did we say the last name was Jones? For particulars we refer you to Mr. Walrath.

After taking a P. G., Kathleen expects to attend Rutgers School of Pharmacy in Newark.

FRANK KOPAC ✓

"Nothing's impossible"

Frank is another quiet and unassuming fellow. He was voted the most unusual boy in the class. Arguing, however, is Frank's greatest delight, and Mr. Ross his favorite opponent.

Frank has had no time for extra-curricular activities because he has worked throughout his entire four years in high school.

Like all boys, Frank likes all sports, especially football. On his day off, you can always see him hanging around a football or baseball game somewhere.

Frank will not go to college, but will continue to work. However, he will not miss the experience he gained while still in school.

EDWIN S. KUKELSKI ✓

"Let's do it and say we didn't."

Ed hails from Jersey City and thinks no place can compare with it. Although he has been with us for only a year, he is well-liked by everybody and admired, too. His slick haircomb is the secret envy of every senior fellow in 104.

No one knows very much about Ed, probably because he's not in the habit of talking about himself and because he's a quiet chap—to those who don't know him.

Eddie has the added attraction of having travelled all over Europe. Quite a man of the world!

The University of Alabama is his choice for a place in which to further his education. Just what his ambitions are, we don't know, but we are sure that he will achieve success.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

EUGENE C. LEAKE ✓

"Gees, fellas—"

Gene is one of the best looking and best dressed fellows in the class. He has a winning personality, and is very obliging. Naturally, he is popular with both sexes.

Gene is a member of the Band, Student Council, Chem Club, and is ex-president of the French Club. In our Senior Play, "Pals First," he played to perfection the part of the suave Dr. Chilton.

He will enter the business world after graduation, probably at the New York Stock Exchange.

JEANETTE M. LEVANDOSKI ✓

"So help me—!"

Is she attractive? Is she a good sport? And is she popular? The answer to all these questions is "yes." She is also another reason why the Bank Staff is noted for its pretty girls.

The football team has one attraction for Jeane. Right! You guessed it the first time. Anyhow, isn't she the best looking girl in our class?

Jeane is also a prominent member of the Senior Gym Team. After graduation, she is going to wait till the depression is over before she hunts a position. We believe she'd make a much nicer "home" girl.

CHARLES E. LUCAS, JR. ✓

"If you could only cook."

For three years Charlie was so quiet and bashful we hardly knew he was around. But the fourth year! "Oh boy!" You should have seen him step out. Watch your step, Charlie, it's leap year!

Charlie is a member of the Chem Club. After school hours, he almost invariably finds himself swimming, skating, or playing basketball. Charlie is rabidly enthusiastic over motorboats.

AUGUSTINE R. MARUSI

"Variety is the spice of life."

Gust is one of the class sheiks, and is a boy with a happy, care-free disposition. One of the most attractive things about him is his winning smile. He was voted the best sport in the class.

William Zergiebel is Gus's side-kick. The two of them are always together and can be seen running around town in a little green roadster.

Gus evinces an admirable interest in P. D. trips. He no doubt realizes that travel broadens one.

We are pleased to inform you that the school will not lose Gus's company by graduation; he expects to be back for a P. G. course. In September, he will honor Rensselaer by his presence.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

RICHARD McNEELY ✓

"Let's go, boys"

Mac's quite a figure at Senior Plays, for besides playing the part of Gordon, he was the Bark in "Pals First" and one of the hefty guards in "First Night."

Mac was voted our best athlete. He started the football season as center, but because of an injury to his head, he was disabled for the rest of the year.

Looking for Mac? We advise you to find Frank Messinger. They're always together.

CLARKSON MORELAND

"What's the P. D. for today?"

Clark always has a smile for you. He is a good class-worker and a letter man in the Band—playing a hot clarinet.

He is a studious sort of a chap and one can usually hear him before P. D. class—"What's the P. D. for today?"

Clark is a faithful member of the Orchestra too, and is quite a musician.

His favorite hobby is collecting minerals n'things. Well that's better than trying to collect some bills, Clark!

His favorite study is Chemistry and he is a member of the Chem Club. Clark expects to enter college after graduation.

NEGLEY PENNELL ✓

"Gee! That was a swell P. D. trip"

"Neg" has taken four years of Math and five years of languages. Boy! oh boy! has he had work to do! However, he expects to enter Cornell in September and possibly take Engineering while there.

"Neg" is also a member of the Hi-Y and Chem Clubs.

CECILE PFEFFER

"For goodness sakes!"

"Cele" has been with us four years, and in that time has built up quite a reputation for wise-cracks and funny remarks. Ask Mr. Crosby, he knows!

Cecile is planning to get a secretarial position, if one can be had. She says she will probably wear out a great deal of valuable shoe leather looking for it. She likes to dance, and her favorite hobby is combing her hair.

Besides being active in the Commercial Club and the Sphinx Club, she is a Sunday School teacher and director of a choir outside of school. And, oh yes, who's the latest B. F., Cele?

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

VICTORIA SAMPLAWSKA

"Yes—I've done my homework"

Quiet, sweet and friendly—that's Victoria. You don't hear much from her, but she is always there, ready to do her bit.

Victoria is president of the Spanish Club, and was a member of the Senior Play Committee. She has been a faithful class-worker for four years. Among other things she is the co-author of the class constitution.

After graduation she will probably enter the business world. No doubt she will make good, for she is a good student and an efficient office-worker.

C. ELI SAX

"Papa'll kick yer teeth out!"

Eli is one of the most congenial members of our class. He is always laughing and joking, even in P. D. class where he has proved himself to be quite a debater. Eli is always ready to debate on anything from the latest way to eat soup to woman suffrage.

Eli is another one of our three and a half years students.

He is going to the University of Pennsylvania where he will take a pre-dental course. He has been working for the past year in a dentist's office.

We wonder why Eli hires a U-Drive car so often.

NORMA EVELYN SCHNEIDER

"Horsefeathers!"

An ardent football fan is Norma. She has missed only three or four of the B. H. S. games since she has been in high school. She has also attended several Army-Navy games in New York.

She has been a very active member of the Junior Woman's Club for several years, and has been on the board for three years.

Norma likes to dance, and is fond of art. She can also be found driving a car 'most any time.

She will go to the Newark School of Fine and Applied Arts. Another artistic girl!

DOROTHEA MOORE SEELEY

"Gosh, I hope that Math is right"

Dot left us in her Freshman B year to attend school in Brooklyn but returned to us in her Senior B year.

She is a member of the Sphinx Society and Girls' Glee Club.

After graduating, she plans to attend Parsons' New York School of Fine and Applied Arts, where she will study costume designing. Dorothy's talent is evident in her work as Art Editor for our annual.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

HELEN SOLOW ✓

"Well I'm in a good mood today."

Peppy, petite and sweet, that's Helen in a nutshell. Helen has been with our class only one year, but she has made herself known to the members of the class by her good sportsmanship, friendliness, and ready wit. She is a member of the School Bank, and it has been said that when Helen is absent, gloom settles over the other members. By the way, Helen is one of our "class vamps."

She has demonstrated in P. D. class that she would make a good member for a debating team. We are very sure of Helen's success as a business woman.

ADELAIDE LASALLE STAMY

"Oh I look a mess!"

There is more than one female member of the class who is envious of those flaming locks! And we guess she can wear ear-rings! Have you noticed "Rusty" when she smiles? Her nose wrinkles and her eyes twinkle. Adelaide well deserves the title, "The girl with the best hair-comb." She always has a ready smile for everyone and she is also the "class wise-cracker."

After graduation, Miss Stamy is going to the Homeopathic Hospital to learn to be a trained nurse. Lucky patients!

KENARD M. STUART ✓

"Holy gee!"

Ken joined us in his sophomore year. He comes from that well-known, popular section of town called Brookdale. Just another farmer lad.

Ken is quite a musician. He plays a sax and boy! How he can make that thing ramble! Don't be surprised if you see him playing with one of the really big orchestras sometime in the near future.

In his spare time, Ken likes to draw. His autobiography written during his senior year was a master-piece. Every letter in the book was hand printed and evidenced the hours he spent, where others spent minutes. When Ken does something, he does it well.

EBEN F. TALBOT ✓

"Uh huh"

Eben drives to school every morning in a shining Buick roadster, stays an hour or two, and then returns to run his Cedar Grove market. Any time after school hours you can see him chauffeuring somebody around.

The Hi-Y and Chem Clubs receive a lot of Eben's time. You may have seen him, in "The Shannons of Broadway" which preceded "Pals First" as the Senior Play. He enacted the role of "Slim," the emaciated, blackface porter.

After graduation he plans to go to South America to start a revolution or stop one or something.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

JEAN THOMAS

"I don't know, Mr. Walrath!"

Jean proved her ability as a leader while vice-president for two terms. She was a member of the Prom and Senior Play committees and took part in the Girl Reserves, the class basketball and baseball teams, and the Latin, French, and Sphinx Clubs. Her comedy and cheerfulness have been constant entertainment for her classmates.

In the fall she expects to study journalism, but as yet has not decided which college to enter.

CELESTE A. TRELEASE

"Oh, Ed!"

Celeste is our demure miss with high ideals. What are they? Ask her. She belongs to the Girl Reserves, French and Chemistry Clubs, and has attended every class meeting as far back as we can remember. She is generally seen trotting along side of Kathleen.

Celeste's favorite pastimes are walking, reading, and playing the piano. Some day she hopes to be a librarian. Good luck, Celeste, we're sure you'll be successful.

EMMETT WANDELE

"Did you do your trig?"

Here's another of our classmates from Cedar Grove. Emmett, although handicapped by ill-health, is graduating in three and one-half years. That's pretty good, eh what?

Emmett's favorite indoor sport, if that's what you call it, is doing Trig. You may not believe it, but it's true.

He is an active member of both the Math and German Clubs. In our opinion, Union College is going to graduate a very successful electrical engineer four years from now.

Good luck, "Emmy," ol' boy!

L. AARON WOLETZ

"Maybe I could get excused if I was sick."

It's hard to write about Larry—he is in so many activities. The easiest way is to list his achievements.

He is vice-president of our class, sports editor of the "Student Prints," Associate Editor of this Annual, president of the Math Club, manager of the Track Team, the smartest person in the class, and promises to carry off more than his share of the prizes at graduation.

Larry is a real fellow, always ready to do his share in everything. And has he got a drag with Miss Miller!

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

THEODORE ZAWISH

"What's the homework?"

You didn't know we have quite an artist among us, did you? Few have seen Teddy display his talent with the drawing pencil. We have, and we urge him to continue along this line.

Ted is a very likable fellow and is always ready to lend a helping hand, especially in Chemistry.

He spends most of his time in the library and we don't think he could find a better place.

He is a proficient ice skater, for gliding along over frozen water is his favorite sport.

Here's luck, Ted.

EDWARD A. ZAWISTOWSKI

"Ya don't say!"

"Lock the doors! Here comes Stivers!" Don't think we're crazy, we are not. We're just trying to introduce you to Ed Zawistowski, the same Ed who played the role of Stivers, the super-detective of the Senior production, "Pals First."

Ed came close to missing out graduating with us. However, a little investigation and deduction showed that if he took an awful lot of subjects in B. H. S. this last term and then some more at Barringer Evening High and passed them all, he could graduate. And we congratulate him; he made the grade.

"PALS FIRST"

THE PALE moon shone through the folding doors of a large, old-fashioned living room in a house in Tennessee. A young girl, wearing a light summer dress, opened the doors and called anxiously, "Dick, Dick." The room was silent. She stole across it, nearer and nearer to the sleeping figure of Dick, whom she had not seen for nearly two years.

This was only one point of interest in our Senior Play, "Pals First," which we, as Senior B's, presented in the Bloomfield High School Auditorium on May 22 and 23, 1931.

In addition to our own actors, we had the pleasure of having Mr. Crosby work with us. He took the part of Dominie, one of the pals. This was the first time in ten years that Dix had taken a part in any Senior Play.

The plot of the play was unusual and held the interest of the audience to the very end. It was a mixture of comedy and tragedy. There were tense moments and some very hilarious ones. Much of the humor was supplied by Louise Kusler, as Aunt Caroline, the old colored maid. The scenes between Frances Blankley, as Aunt Alicia, and Dix, as Dominie were little less than a riot.

CLASS HISTORY

AFTER our graduation from Park Grammar School on Tuesday evening, January 31, 1928, we entered B. H. S. 112 strong.

The first class meeting was held on February 28 in the girls' gym. Mr. Stover opened the meeting and we proceeded to elect our class officers. Frank Beldowski was elected President; Raymond Bliss, Vice-President; Emagene Earle, Secretary; Norman Cook, Treasurer. We wisely selected Miss Anne Smith as our adviser.

It is the custom of each class to draw up a constitution. That was our first undertaking. May Pierson, David Hart, and Aaron Woletz served on the committee. The class accepted the articles on October 31, 1928.

In the sophomore year we gave our Valentine Dance, on February 14, 1929. The girls' gym was decorated in red and white. Thrones for the King and Queen of Hearts were entwined in those colors. Bob Miller and Jean Sinclair were winners of the popularity contest. Each wearing a crown they marched to their respective thrones. They were presented with a gift by Mr. Mason, who kindly rendered his services.

On April 8, 9, 1929, we had our first candy sale.

On November 20, we sponsored the Mothers' "get acquainted" party. The program was successful. Emagene Earle and May Pierson played a duet. Frank Beldowski rendered a violin solo. Several girls sang a selection. Then we produced our first play, taken from the text of one-act plays, entitled, "The Diabolical Circle." The story centered around a Quaker romance. Bertha Wronsky was a very charming leading lady. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

During our 10A year, in January, 1930, we gave the "Golden Dragon" dance in the girls' gym. Palms and Japanese lanterns added extremely to the yellow and green decorations. It was a pleasant surprise to everyone when balloons and streamers floated down on the dancers. Everyone admitted that the gymnasium changed mystically to a cabaret for two hours that Friday afternoon.

Our representatives to the Student Council were May Pierson and Fred Cranse. They were elected in February, 1930.

In order to make our Prom bigger and better, a Theatre Party was held on November 21, at the Royal. The picture, "Old English," starring George Arliss, was an attraction. A net profit of $34.87 was realized.

The Prom, held on December 26, 1930, was one of the most successful proms the Juniors have ever presented. Decorations were of blue and gold. The orchestra was attractively surrounded by palms. Miss Smith and Miss Terry were chaperons. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Salsbury, Superintendent and Mrs. E. S. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Haupin. There was a large attendance which comprised many alumni.

Our class had the honor of being first to have the school seal on its rings. The Senior Play, "Pals First", was produced on May 22, 23, 1931.

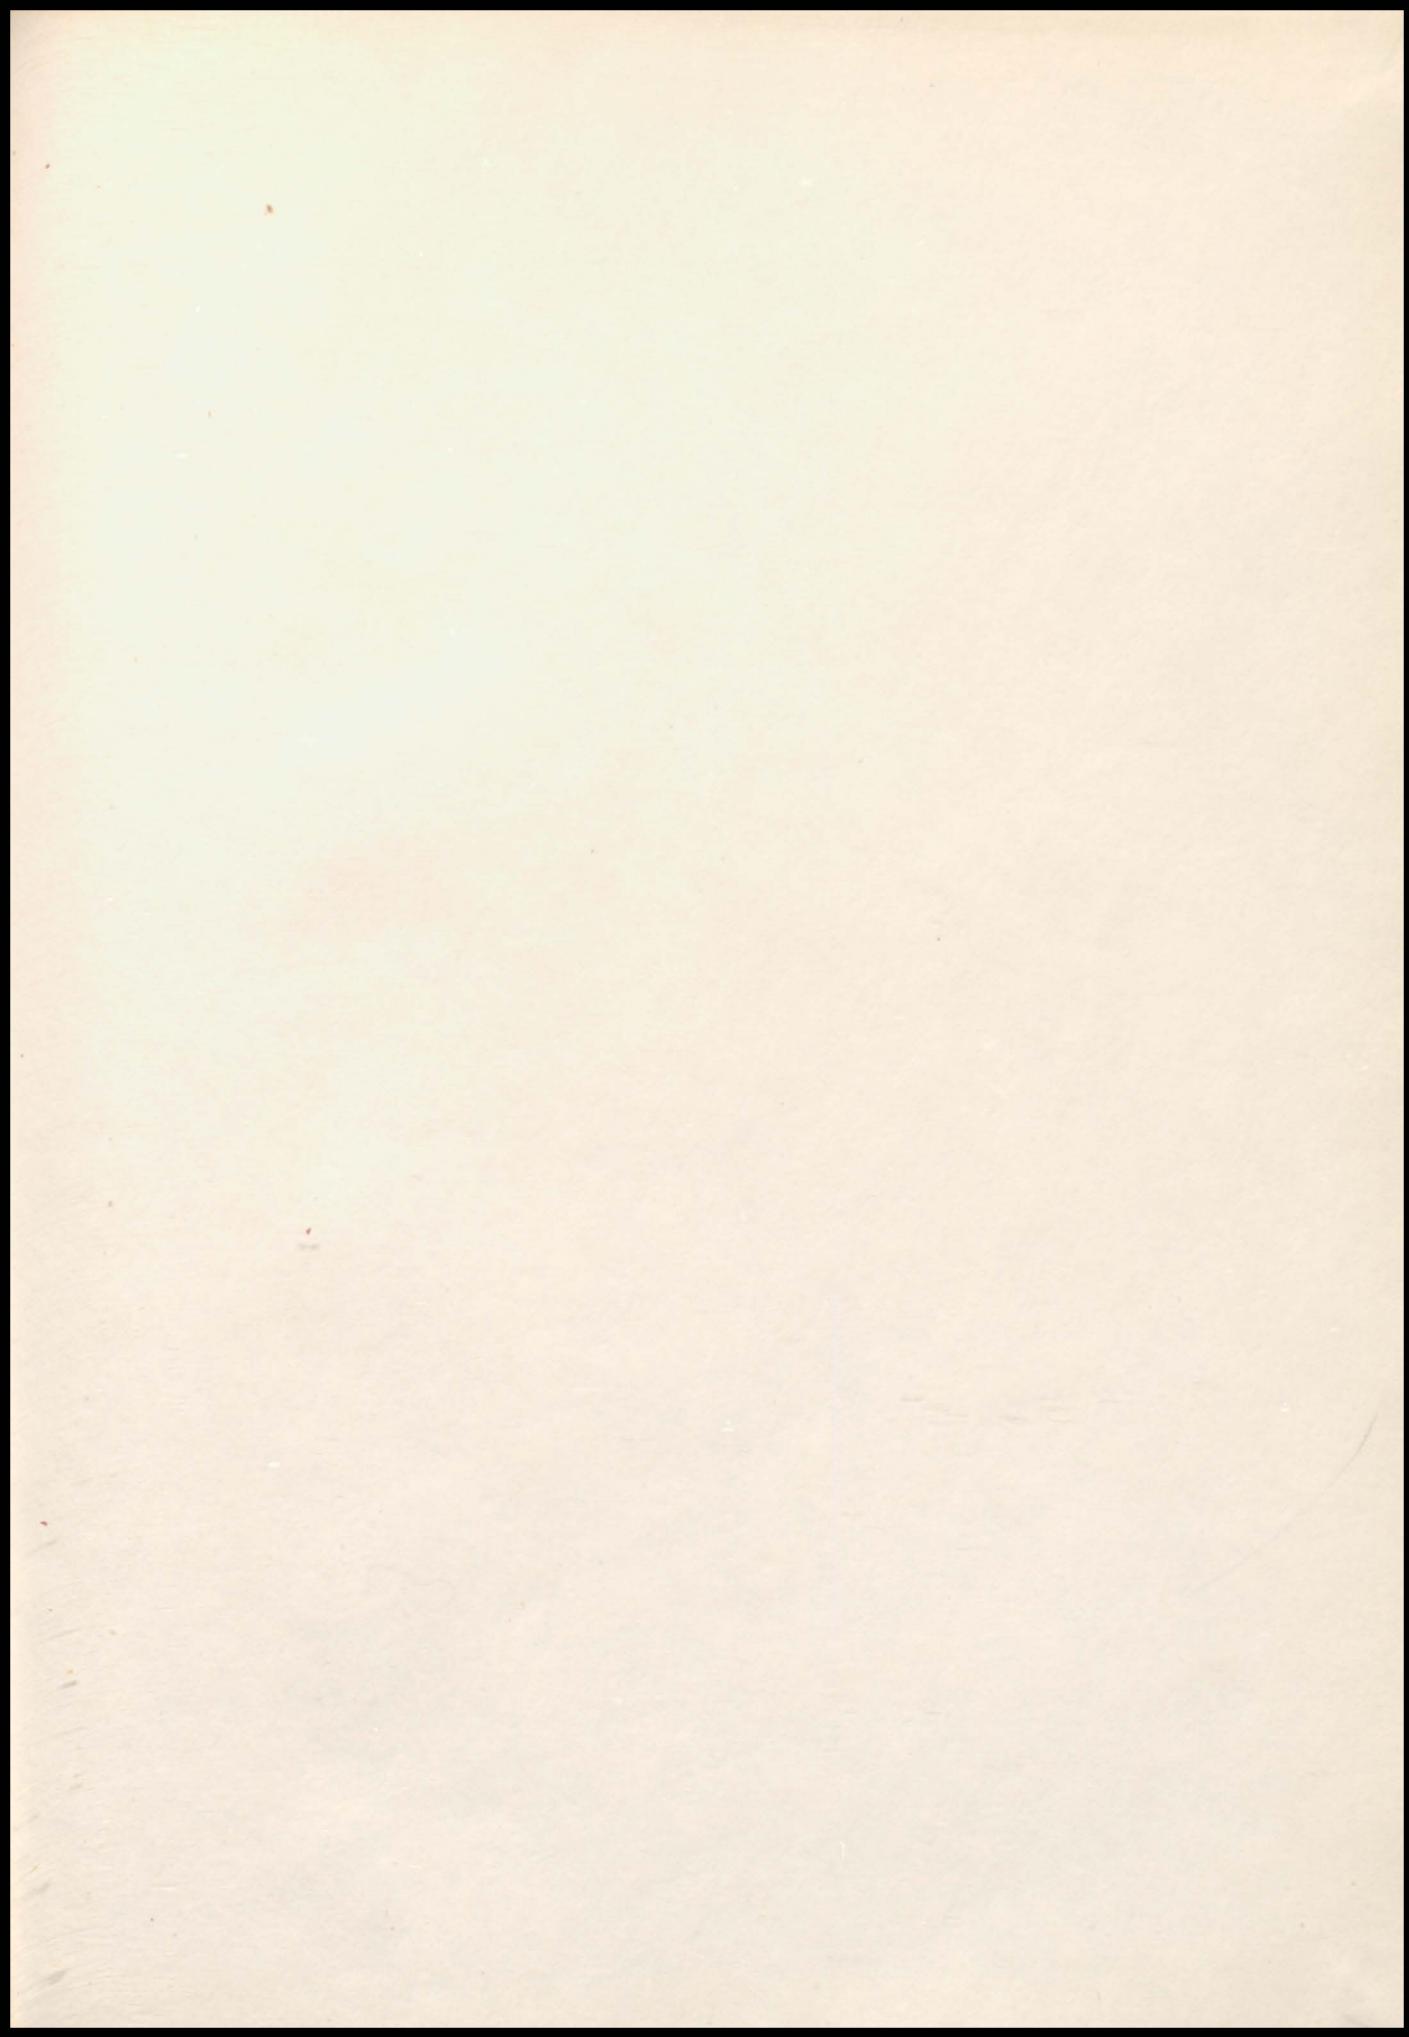

On Friday, November 20, 1931, we gave our last class dance in B. H. S. We made a net profit of $31.

In December, 1931, the class sold Christmas Cards. The drive was worth while.

Our Class Night date is January 21, our graduation, January 26, 1932.
